Iron Guard Activities in Rumania
Viorel Donice TRIIPA

1. An OSMV report to KUBARK contained a signed statement by George MONTAN which attests to atrocities committed by a Viorel Donice TRIIPA in Rumania from the period 1939 to 1941. The statement also noted that TRIIPA, along with Moris SIMA, led an Iron Guard rebellion in Bucharest, Rumania which "resulted in the wholesale killing of thousands of Rumanian Jews." After the rebellion the German Government in Rumania outlawed the Iron Guard and sentenced TRIIPA to life imprisonment for his activities in the abortive revolution. However prior to the trial TRIIPA left Rumania and allegedly hid for a period in Italy or Spain. TRIIPA is now reported to be residing in the U.S.
